IN DETAIL:

Despite a free-fall parachuting accident in Africa, where Bear broke his back in three places and endured many months in and out of military rehabilitation, he recovered and went on to become one of the youngest climbers ever to reach the summit of Mount Everest. He then went on to star in seven seasons of the Discovery Channel's Emmy Award-nominated Man vs. Wild TV series, which became one of the most-watched shows on the planet. Since then, he has gone on to host more extreme adventure TV shows across more global networks than anyone else in the world, including six seasons of the global hit TV show Running Wild with Bear Grylls. He has also won two BAFTAs, including one for his hit Channel 4 show The Island with Bear Grylls.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Bear's story of progressing from a broken back in hospital to the summit of the world's highest mountain, is one that touches people globally, focussing on those simple qualities that make the difference between life and death on a mountain: the intimacies and realities of teamwork, the honesty needed in intense environments and the courage that comes not from bravado but from something else inside.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Bear has a natural talent for communication and his talks are both challenging and informative. His is a story of honesty, friendships, determination and humility.
