

Cathy Newman

Journalist and Broadcaster

"One of the UK's Leading Presenters"

Cathy Newman is one of Channel 4 News' main studio presenters and is now considered to be one of the UK's most hard-hitting and lauded broadcast journalists. She is an outspoken advocate for women's issues, and a prolific twitter user, voicing her opinions on current news issues.

TOPICS:

- Presenter
- Host
- Conference Facilitator
- Awards
- After Dinner

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2020 It Takes Two: A History of the Couples Who Dared to be Different
- 2018 Bloody Brilliant Women: The Pioneers, Revolutionaries and Geniuses Your History Teacher Forgot to Mention

IN DETAIL:

Since her arrival at Channel 4 News, Cathy has broken countless major stories. As the sole broadcast journalist to travel with Angelina Jolie and William Hague to the Congo as part of a campaign against sexual violence, Cathy's work has been pioneering and ground-breaking. Cathy's studio interviews are frequently news-making, and many have gone viral watched by millions online, including combative encounters with the Canadian academic Jordan Peterson and the former motor-racing tycoon Max Mosley. She presents other Channel 4 programmes including the Alternative Election Night with Jeremy Paxman. She regularly presents Channel 4's Dispatches programmes and has appeared several times on Have I Got News for You and Christmas Celebrity Genius.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Alongside her on-screen work Cathy is in demand with her combination of professionalism, journalistic background, experience, warmth and humour make her a very popular host.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Her natural ability and experience in live broadcasting lend her perfectly for the corporate environment and she is a confident and experienced host and speaker, as well as an insightful facilitator.