IN DETAIL:

This historic swim, completed after nearly 53 hours in the water, marked her fifth attempt and came 30 years after her initial failure to finish the same route. Diana's incredible life story is the subject of the feature film "Nyad," starring Jodie Foster, highlighting her extraordinary achievements, and bringing her inspiring journey to a wider audience on Netflix. Beyond her achievements in swimming, Diana is dedicated to promoting an active and environmentally conscious lifestyle. She launched EverWalk, an initiative aimed at transforming a sedentary nation into one of millions of walkers. And she developed the Oceans Commit event, which gathers commitment signatures from individuals and businesses to reduce single-use plastic.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Diana Nyad captivates audiences with her compelling story of resilience, determination, and the pursuit of dreams against all odds. From the stage, her message of teamwork, determination, perseverance, and "finding a way" to overcome seemingly impossible challenges resonates with audiences at every level across the world.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Diana's story is a powerful reminder that age, setbacks, and challenges should never deter us from pursuing our dreams.
