IN DETAIL:

Born with a collapsed lung and asthma, a young Laura was advised to get involved in sport to help her breathing problems. After picking up junior national titles, the teenage Laura joined the senior cycling team, at the time one of the most successful teams in the world. Within two years she was a fixture in the squad and competing at the London Olympics. In her autobiography 'The Inside Track', Laura along with her husband Jason give the inside track on what it takes to become a champion. She has been awarded Harper's Bazaar "Sporting Icons" award alongside Dame Sarah Storey; and her and teammate Katie Archibald became "Sky Sports Team of the Year" for their Madison gold medal in Tokyo at The Sunday Times Sportswomen of the Year. In 2021 Laura made her punditry debut on Eurosport at the inaugural UCI Track Champions League, in which she will be racing in 2022.
