

Rosanna Lockwood

International News Anchor

"A Passionate Broadcast Journalist"

Rosanna Lockwood is a British broadcast journalist, with more than a decade of experience working as a Presenter and Correspondent for major networks across Europe, the Middle East and Asia. She has fronted prime-time news shows from London, Istanbul, Dubai, and Singapore and is a regular presenter of Talk TV's flagship nightly newspaper review show First Edition.

TOPICS:

- Economics
- Geopolitics
- Moderator
- Host & Presenter

LANGUAGES:

She presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Previously, Rosanna anchored Squawk Box and Street Signs programming in London and Singapore for CNBC International, alongside providing European markets reporting for CNBC U.S., MSNBC and the wider NBC network. She began her career as a reporter and producer for the BBC, Bloomberg TV, LBC and ITN. Rosanna has interviewed world leaders and central bank governors. She has also filmed and hosted projects in conjunction with the UN's Climate Change Conference and the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland.

WHAT SHE OFFERS YOU:

Rosanna's expertise in live television news means that she is used to working against tight deadlines and handling unplanned developments in high-pressure environments. Organisers trust her to confidently steer their events and to accurately respond to the needs of their audiences, while being transparent, friendly and easy to work with.

HOW SHE PRESENTS:

Rosanna has also provided her skills as a broadcaster for select corporate videos and livestream projects, as well as awards ceremonies and galas. Rosanna specialises in combining natural and polished presentation with specialist insights and well-honed news interviewing techniques.